

You are invited to a celebration!

The North Yorkshire Local Resilience Forum is holding an event to celebrate the expansion of Ready for Anything across North Yorkshire.

All of our volunteers are invited to the event, 2pm - 3.30pm on Tuesday 11th December at:

York CVS building, Priory Street, York, YO1 6ET

Guests include:

North Yorkshire Police Deputy Chief Constable

North Yorkshire County Council Resilience & Emergencies

Major Incident Response Team

City of York Council Emergency Planning

Harrogate Borough Council Emergency Planning

York CVS

Environment Agency

Local press and media are also invited.

Refreshments will be provided.

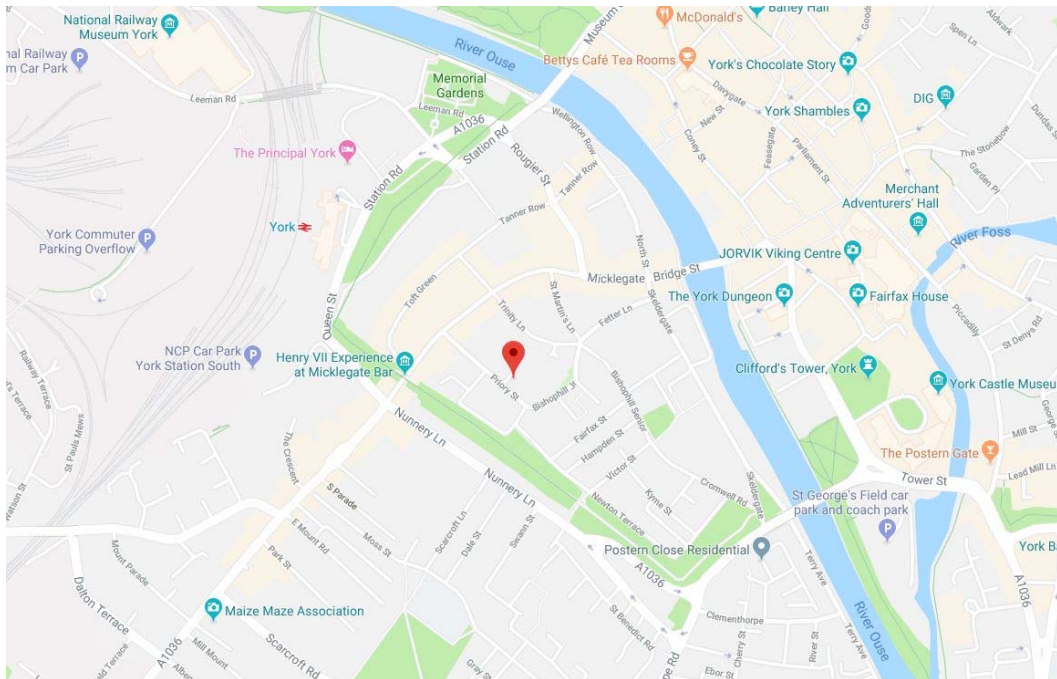

If you are able to attend, please reply by Friday 7th December to:

readyforanything@northyorks.gov.uk

We hope to see you there!

PARKING DETAILS – There is limited on street parking, the nearest alternative car parks are:

NCP Car Park York Station South:

24 Queen St, York YO24 1AD

York Commuter Car Park:

Leeman Road, York YO26 4XJ

St George's Field Car Park:

Fishergate, York YO10 4AB

PARK & RIDE

